TRUMAN ACTS TO PUNISH WAR CRIMINALS

President Is Convinced Nazi Fuehrer Is Dead

Appoints Justice Jackson To Prosecute Others for War Crimes

By TOM KEEDE

WASHINGTON, May 2 (AP)—Convinced that Adolf Hitler really is dead, President Truman acted tonight to bring to swift justice other leaders guilty of high crimes against civilization.

The president told a news conference he had it on the best authority that Hitler is no longer alive. He didn't know how the death occurred, he said, but was glad that both der fuhrer and Mussolini were out of the way.

Wants To Try Others

It means, the executive continued, that the two major war criminals of Europe do not have to be brought to trial. But, he asserted, there are others and they must.

To that end, he appointed Supreme Court Justice Robert H. Jackson as this country's chief counsel for such prosecution in the European theater. Jackson already has gathered a staff together.

The president said Justice Jackson will function in those cases of major war criminals whose misdeeds are not connected with any one specific locality. Others, who can be connected with a personal band in specific crimes are to be tried by the countries where the crimes were committed.

The president electrified his jammed conference with the Hitler announcement. It was the climax to a day of international developments which included:

Conferred with Churchill

1—Disclosure by Mr. Truman early in the day that German forces in Italy and parts of Austria had surrendered unconditionally. He warned Japan "to understand the meaning of these events."

2—Announcement that the president's hurried trip to the War Department's Pentagon building the afternoon of April 25 was to consider an offer from Heinrich Himmler to surrender to the United States and Britain but not to Russia. Mr. Truman and Prime Minister Churchill talked it over, apparently by radio telephone, told Marshal Stalin they were rejecting it and the Soviet leader agreed.

The president told reporters he had been in communication with Marshal Stalin though he did not elaborate, he apparently meant that the subject of the communication was the Himmler offer. Details of that came from acting Secretary of State Joseph C. Grew.

30,000 Japanese Doomed in Burma

By JOHN GROVER

CALCUTTA, May 2 (AP)—British airborne troops poured ashore from warships at the mouth of the Rangoon river twenty miles south of Rangoon early today, cutting off the last of 30,000 Japanese troops in the Burma capital, Allied headquarters announced.

Parachute forces made an initial landing in the area between Rangoon and the bay of Bengal yesterday, clearing the way for the main body of Allied forces which landed in strength on both banks of the river.

Details of the operation, which promised to crush the last important Japanese resistance in Burma in a matter of days, were hidden by censorship.

Anglo-American Strategy in Italy Vindicated, Kirke Simpson Asserts

By KIRKE L. SIMPSON
Associated Press War Analyst

Abject and unconditional surrender of Nazi-Fascist forces estimated at a million, strong has ended the war in Italy.

It has decisively vindicated bold Anglo-American strategy that struck its first offensive blows through the Mediterranean at what Prime Minister Churchill then termed the "soft under belly" of the foe. And it has left Nazi armies elsewhere, from the now meaningless southern redoubt to Norway, with no choice but surrender or death.

NAZI GENIUS CAUGHT

Marshal Karl von Rundstedt

Declares It Is Senseless for the Germans To Fight Any Longer

By HOWARD COWAN

WITH UNITED STATES SEVENTH ARMY IN SOUTHERN EUROPE, May 2 (AP)—Thin-lipped Field Marshal Gen. Karl Rudolf Gerd von Rundstedt, Germany's top military strategist taken prisoner by American troops south of Munich, told his captors today it was senseless for the Reich to fight any longer.

Advised of the reported death of Adolf Hitler, the cold Prussian aristocrat commented without elaboration: "Admiral Dönitz has been in charge for some time."

Von Rundstedt said that he went to Berlin March 10 to bid Hitler farewell and that the fuhrer seemed to be in good health then but was "shaking like he had the palsy."

Kesseling in Bavaria

He said Field Marshal Albert Kesseling was somewhere in Bavaria and Field Marshal Walther von Model was either dead or captured.

The man who directed the German armies at the peak of their success and again just before they sank to the depths of defeat, was captured by a young American lieutenant on his first combat assignment. The field marshal was surprised at his home in the little spa of Bad Toelz, about five miles from Munich, just after he had finished dining with his family last night.

The capture was made by Lt. Joseph Burke (address not given) and a detachment from Company A, One Hundred Forty-first regiment, Thirty-sixth infantry division, A Seventh army announcement said it was Burke's first combat assignment since he received a battlefield command three weeks ago. Taken prisoner with the field marshal were his son and aide, Lt. Hans Gerd von Rundstedt; a driver and a medical aid man.

Taken Before Patch

He was brought to the command post of Maj. Gen. John Dahlquist, Thirty-sixth division commander, at 3 a. m. He made his comments about Hitler and Dönitz there before being driven away in a blinding snow storm to Lt. Gen. Alexander M. Patch's Seventh army headquarters.

Dahlquist told me that he was in pajamas when von Rundstedt was brought in.

"Maybe I should have put on my dress uniform but I didn't think it necessary," the American officer said. "I explained that I had been (Continued on Page 13, Col. 6)

Restless Seventh army tank columns deep in the Alps were only eight miles northwest of Innsbruck, control point for all east-west lines through the redoubt, and in a thirty-mile sweep south of Munich reached the Inn river forty-five miles west of Berchtesgaden.

The Third army to the east closed up to the Inn river on a forty-mile front, was on the river opposite Hitler's birthplace of Braunau, Austria. At that point it was forty-five miles north of Berchtesgaden and thirty-three from Salzburg.

Luebeck Captured

The British Second army and American airborne units assigned to it cut loose from the Elbe bridgehead in gains of as much as fifty miles that quickly overwhelmed the Baltic port of Luebeck.

It was at Luebeck that Washington revealed today Himmler had met a Swedish emissary April 24 to try to arrange a surrender deal, and had declared Germany was beaten and Hitler dying.

The fall of Luebeck sealed off Denmark and cut off an escape route through which the Germans were fleeing the Red armies.

Thirty miles to the east, the British Sixth airborne division seized Wismar, twenty-nine miles from the southern redoubt is backed, is utterly vulnerable from rear and flank. MANILA, Thursday, May 2 (AP)—Gen. Douglas A. MacArthur confirmed today that veteran Australian troops have landed on Tarakan, tiny island just off the northeast coast of Borneo.

The invasion was reported two days ago by Australian and Japanese sources.

The general said one of Australia's most famous divisions, veterans of New Guinea and the Midway, had hit the beaches of Tarakan after the invasion sector had been blasted by Royal and Far East air force planes and Allied warships.

Ships of the American Seventh fleet and the Royal Australian navy took part in the operation.

The amphibious forces swept ashore about two miles east of the Tarakan airfield.

The Japanese, again taken by surprise, failed to organize initial resistance and the beachhead was speedily established.

The Aussies immediately struck inland.

"This operation virtually severs the enemy holdings in the south," General MacArthur said. "His forces in the eastern portions of the Netherlands East Indies are effectively isolated. Establishment of this base will complete our chain of airfields and enable us to strike enemy forces anywhere in the Southwest Pacific."

Northern Italy And Austria Are Cleared of Foe

Yanks and British Left Free To Advance upon Berchtesgaden

By NOLAND NORGAARD

ROME, May 2 (AP)—A million German and Italian Fascist troops made the first unconditional surrender of the war in Europe today, yielded without a shot the mountainous heart of the Nazis' "national redoubt" in the Alps and exposed the south flank of the fragments that remain.

Gen. Heinrich von Vietinghoff-Scheel planned to come out of the Alps tomorrow to give up with his staff to Field Marshal Sir Harold Alexander, the Allied commander, or to Gen. Mark Clark, commander of the Fifteenth army group in Italy.

Clears Northern Italy

The surrender swept clean of resistance all Northern Italy and Western Austria up to and including Salzburg province and its capital of the same name, which was the eastern bastion of the Alpine retreat.

Thus the Allied armies of the south were free to march unopposed to within ten miles of Berchtesgaden, where Hitler had his mountain hideout and which being in Bavaria is not included in the surrender order.

(Gen. Eisenhower in Paris told his armies to keep on pressing south, mopping up all resistance, although the surrender order yielded up the chief objectives of his United States Seventh Army and part of those of the United States Third, which was closing on Salzburg.)

The surrender documents, ending the bloody twenty-month Italian campaign, were signed Sunday at the royal palace at Caserta, near Naples, and became effective at 12 noon (8 a. m. eastern war time) today.

Two Germans Sign

Two German plenipotentiaries signed for Germany, the presence of American, British and Russian officers.

Approximately 20,000 square miles of German-held territory including all of Northern Italy to the Isonzo river in the northeast and the Austrian provinces of Vorarlberg, Tyrol, Salzburg and parts of Carinthia and Styria were surrendered to the Allies.

The action not only uncovers the southern approaches to Germany but tops off the southeastern end of the so-called German "national redoubt" and turns the right flank of Col. Gen. von Lehr, commanding enemy troops in the Trieste area and Northern Yugoslavia.

But even as the sirens screamed and jubilant celebrations were started a grim warning of the bitter fighting that still was ahead on the other side of the world was sounded by Gen. Joseph T. McNarney, commander of American forces in the Mediterranean, who said that not "until the last foe—Japan—is crushed" will "freedom-loving men and women be able to enjoy lasting peace."

Hannegan Is Appointed To Succeed Postmaster General Walker July 1

Will Retain Present Post As Democratic National Chairman

By D. HAROLD OLIVER

WASHINGTON, May 2 (AP)—In the first shift in the old Roosevelt cabinet, President Truman today announced the resignation of Postmaster General Frank C. Walker and the selection of Robert E. Hannegan to succeed him.

Walker, 59-year-old New York lawyer and theater chain operator, will leave the cabinet voluntarily June 30 after completing a reorganization of his department.

Hannegan, 41-year-old Missourian who ran Franklin D. Roosevelt's fourth term campaign, will take over his new job July 1, if confirmed by the Senate. He will retain the Democratic national chairmanship. James J. Farley held both posts for eight years under Roosevelt, but quit over the third term issue. Walker also acted in the dual capacities for a year.

In a second major appointment announced at his news conference, the president said he was naming David E. Lilienthal for another nine-year term as chairman of the Tennessee Valley Authority starting May 18. In doing so he sided with Alabama and against Tennessee senators.

Senator McKellar (D-Tenn.), long a bitter critic of Lilienthal, had no immediate comment on the president's announcement. Prior to it, he had indicated to reporters he was uncertain whether he would renew his fight if Lilienthal was reappointed.

SUICIDE OF GOEBBELS AND HITLER REPORTED

LONDON, Thursday, May 3 (AP)—Russians today quoted a high German prisoner as declaring that Adolf Hitler had committed suicide along with Propaganda Minister Goebbels as the capital of the blood-drenched Nazi empire tumbled around them.

Also reported dead by his own hand was Hitler's new general staff chief, an infantry general named Krebs.

No Mention of Hitler

Stalin's order today made no mention of Hitler, who the Nazis had said died in his shattered Reichschancellery in the heart of Berlin on May 1.

The Soviet communique, however, states that among the captives taken was Dr. Hans Fritzsche, Goebbels' chief deputy in the Nazi ministry of Press and Propaganda, and that Fritzsche told his Russian interrogators that Hitler, Goebbels and General Krebs all had committed suicide.

Not a single additional detail was supplied by the communique, which carried the startling announcement deep in the body of its text.

Only Wednesday the Moscow radio had ridiculed the German account of Hitler's "heroic death" in Berlin, saying it was "a Fascist trick" to give him a chance to escape underground.

Moscow in Doubt

Today, Moscow officially carried the suicide report, indicating that it was at least given some credence. For or against Fritzsche's credibility as a witness, there was the fact that on the very day the Russians broke into Berlin—April 21—he had broadcast the first report that Hitler and Goebbels were there and that Hitler personally was directing the defense.

An old-time Nazi and long-time chief of the Propaganda Ministry's radio section, Fritzsche might be considered as one of the last men on earth to say that Hitler died an ignominious suicide rather than the heroic Siegfried of the Hamburg radio announcements.

Truman Is Silent

The food committee headed by Rep. Anderson (D-NM) conferred with President Truman over the recommendations of its 7,000-word report—product of a six-week investigation—but members said he indicated no reaction. Yesterday the president issued a statement praising OPA's entire price control program.

Although the committee made no direct denunciation of any single government agency, it traced the meat shortage and black markets to OPA's price and enforcement policies, to the War Food Administration's revisions of production orders and other government programs.

To cure the food crisis it recommended:

1. A subsidy for cattle feeders to put more weight on beef for market.
2. A boost in the hog support price to 13.50 a hundredweight.
3. A co-ordinated food program all the way from producer to consumer, linking production quotas, prices, distribution and rationing in one setup.
4. A top priority for food production, with arrangements for adequate farm machinery and manpower, and an increase of storage facilities so that surpluses can be stock-piled against future shortages.
5. Separate ration points for meat and rigid black market controls at the source.

The other recommendations dealt with demands for increased production of poultry, eggs and sugar to ward off approaching shortages which the committee said will reach their peak by late summer.

70,000 German Troops Give Up To the Russians

Stalin Orders 24 Salvos from 324 Cannon Fired in Moscow

By ROMNEY WHEELER

LONDON, May 2 (AP)—Berlin, greatest city of the European continent and capital of Adolf Hitler's blood-drenched empire, fell to the Russians at 3 p. m. today after twelve days of history's deadliest street fighting.

Seventy thousand troops were captured in the final cleanup as the remnants of the shocked garrison laid down its arms. Premier Stalin announced in an order of the day broadcast from Moscow tonight.

Hitler Not Mentioned

Stalin's order made no mention of Adolf Hitler, who the Nazis said had died in his shattered Reichschancellery on May 1.

Nor did it mention Paul Joseph Goebbels, Berlin gauleiter and Nazi propaganda minister who had been credited by the German radio with standing at Hitler's side in the defense of the city.

The order listed as commander of Berlin an artillery general named Wehling and said he was among those captured.

It was certain, however, that the Russians literally would leave no stone unturned in the vast junk-heap that was the capital in an effort to verify or disprove the German contention that Hitler died there while directing the fight.

Third Order of Day

Stalin's order was his third of the day. He had built up to the climactic fall of Berlin with orders announcing the death or capture of 120,000 Germans since April 24 with complete destruction of the German Ninth army southeast of Berlin, and the capture of Germany's last important Baltic port, Rostock, in a forty-four-mile drive by the Second White Russian army.

For the conquest of Berlin his proclamation called for the top Moscow victory salute of twenty-four salvos from 324 cannon in tribute to the armies that took Berlin: The First White Russian and First Ukrainian.

Those armies, commanded by Marshals G. K. Zhukov and Ivan S. Konev, had jumped across the Oder sixteen days previously, and on April 21 fought into Berlin. They encircled the sprawling city, which already had been wrecked by American and British bombers, and tore the remnants to bits in some of the bitterest big-scale street fighting of all time.

End of Nazi Empire

Thus fell the once-mighty capital which Stalin described as "the center of German imperialism and heart of German aggression," and which Hitler had proclaimed as the seat of his "thousand-year Reich" empire—the empire that in less than six years died as it had been born, in blood and suffering.

The greatest city ever to fall in battle in the history of warfare, Berlin lay a 341-square mile monument to the death of millions and to the diseased ambition of one man: Adolf Hitler.

How many persons died there will never be known with accuracy, but before the war that greatest of Continental cities had a population of 4,335,000, and only Monday night the Russians announced that the fanatical Nazi defenders were killing many of the civilians with their fire.

Nazis Fight Furiously

The fury of that defense was everything that Hitler had said it would be, and even Wednesday afternoon his dwindling cohorts had contended via the Hamburg radio that resistance in Berlin was "not yet broken" even while admitting that the garrison had been ripped into isolated pockets.

Truman Favors $7,365,000,000 Ship Cutback

WASHINGTON, May 2 (AP)—President Truman today recommended a ten per cent slash in war spending and pledged further economies as the military situation improves.

The executive proposed a $7,365,000,000 cutback in shipbuilding, and an $80,000,000 reduction of eight war agency budgets. In addition, he abolished the Office of Civilian Defense.

Mr. Truman said he was impelled by "favorable progress of the war." He sent his recommendations to Congress with the advice that all federal activities "will be continually reviewed to achieve economies where they will not interfere with the prosecution of the war."

The reductions would be applied to the 1946 budget, last submitted by Franklin D. Roosevelt. As it stands now, the budget calls for approximately $70,000,000,000 for war expenditures and $13,103,000,000 for normal functions.

Senator McKellar (D-Tenn.), acting chairman of the Senate Appropriations committee said: "we'll do everything in the world to help the president reduce expenditures."

Mr. Truman specifically urged repeal of an appropriation of $3,100,000,000 and $4,285,000,000 in contract authorizations for the Maritime commission.

He directed that OGD go out of business June 30 and its budget request of $369,000 be rescinded.

Here are the specific additional cuts proposed:

- OWI—$12,100,000.
 - WPB—$8,894,000.
 - Censorship—$4,800,000.
 - ODT—$3,300,000.
 - Petroleum Administration of war—$345,000.
 - Federal Security agency—$43,710,400.
 - War Manpower Commission—$9,339,900.
 - Office of Scientific Research—$13,200,000.
 - Total—$95,689,200.
- There was one increase suggested, $15,000,000 to the FSA for increased (Continued on Page 2, Col. 4)

United States Opposed To Giving Argentina High Conference Post

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL
SAN FRANCISCO, May 2 (AP)—Latin American desires to give Argentina an official post in the United Nations conference ran tonight into dead set opposition from the United States.

United States delegates, it was learned, have taken the stand that the South American neighbor, a late entry into the war, ought to prove she can be a "good neighbor" before she gets anything more than bare admission to the conference.

The United States stance became evident while Russia was throwing her support toward a voting formula which would prevent a bloc of twenty-one American republics (including Argentina) from swaying conference decisions.

The Big Three leaders—Secretary of State Stettinius, Foreign Minister Eden of Britain and Soviet Commissar Molotov—met for an hour and three quarters today and it was reported that voting procedure was one of the problems before them.

And, while delegates listened to a last round of formal speeches in the opera house before tackling the real work of cutting a pattern for a peaceful world, labor leaders from the United States, Britain, France and Russia asked formally that they be allowed to sit in on the conference as consultants.

LISTEN, WORLD!

—By Elsie Robinson
(Registered U. S. Patent Office)

I'm glad I've lived!
If I were to die before tomorrow—
And if, before I died,
Everything were taken from me,
And my friends betrayed me, and I were forced to endure
The utmost shame and heartbreak,
I'd still say—
"I'M GLAD I'VE LIVED—
"WHATEVER IT COSTS.
"LIFE IS WORTH WHILE!"

As a matter of fact,
Like every normal human
Who's old enough to come
In out of the rain,
I have endured most of these things
In some measure,
And at first, I'll confess,
I raised an awful rumpus about it.
"What's the use of going on?" I cried.

"If I've got to be sick and poor?
"What's the use of trying.
"If your friends betray you?
"What's there left to live for,
"When the one you loved is dead?"

That's how I talked at first — for, being young and ignorant, I thought that life meant only
What happened to me.
And how I felt about it.
And if I wasn't happy,
Then life was a flop.

For it's plain to see
That in a world as crowded as this,
As bristling with conflict,
And competition,
And disappointment and accident,
It's obviously impossible
For things to happen to suit
Any one person's convenience.

And, as long as I insisted
On hogging the spotlight,
Life was bound to be
Just one sock in the jaw
After another.

But after many years of socks—
Twenty, thirty, forty,
More than fifty years of socks—
I began to see that life
Had bigger concerns than my happiness.

Or anyone's personal happiness.
I began to see that Life was concerned

With the great and endless adventure of growing.
Races growing . . . spirits growing.
And that the mishaps that came
To me and everyone
Were just part of the program—
Of growing.

And I realized that Life,
However it happened,
Was a great show.
If it held ugliness,
It also held beauty.
If it held lies,
It also held truth.
If it held death,
It also held birth.

And who could tell which was which.
But you didn't need to tell—
You didn't need to judge.
All you needed to enjoy life,
And profit by it.

Was to get outside yourself
And see life as a show.
Taking things as they came.
Realizing that everything was important.

And sacred, and mysterious.
Whether it made you happy or not.

That's why I'm saying
I'm glad I've lived!
It was all worth while,
No matter what it cost.
Maybe I didn't get the breaks I wanted.

BUT JUST BEING BORN IS THE BIGGEST BREAK
ANYONE CAN HAVE!

Federal Court Dismisses Charge against Negro

Charges against Kenneth F. Holly, 20, negro, were dismissed after a hearing Monday before Judge William E. Baker in the northern district court of West Virginia at Wheeling, according to Howard P. Loughrie, deputy United States marshal.

Holly, who lives on Gay street, was charged with violating the Selective Service act by failing to report for induction in Fairmont, W. Va., where he registered under the name of James Howard Rogers in March, 1943.

Loughrie said that Holly was sentenced here to serve two years in the Maryland House of Correction in 1942 on a larceny charge. Six months later Holly was transferred to the state penal farm at Hagers-town where he escaped and went to Fairmont, according to Loughrie.

In August, 1943, Holly was apprehended and sent to the house of correction with an additional sentence of six months for escaping from the penal farm. When he failed to report for induction, he was indicted last January by the federal grand jury at Wheeling.

After being paroled in June, 1944, Holly was inducted into the army but was discharged the following December and returned to Cumberland, Loughrie said.

Holly was arrested April 25 and held in the county jail under $2,000 bond until the hearing Monday.

WOUNDED AIRMAN IS BACK HOME

Staff Sgt. Woodward D. Pealer, 766 Maryland avenue, is home after completing more than thirty-five missions over Italy from a base in Corsica. He was hit by fragments of flak while on bombing runs over Ostiglia and Bologna during operations in support of the United States Fifth Army and the British Eighth army which were pushing the Germans and Mussolini's Fascists up the Italian "boot."

The toughest target in Italy was the Brenner Pass which U. S. air-men bombed almost daily to stop the flow of German supplies reaching Italy, Sgt. Pealer said.

"They had anti-aircraft guns mounted in the Pass which is several thousand feet high and this gave them an advantage in range to make our chances of completing the mission pretty slim," he added.

Sgt. Pealer wears the Purple Heart medal with an Oak Leaf Cluster, the Distinguished Flying Cross and the Air Medal with four Oak Leaf Clusters. In addition he has the European Mediterranean campaign ribbons with two battle stars.

A graduate of Allegheny high school, he was employed at the Celanese plant prior to enlisting in August of 1942. He went overseas last August. He is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Bennear Pealer.

Will of Leo T. Downey Is Admitted to Probate

Mrs. Theresa W. Downey was named sole beneficiary and executor of the estate of her husband, Leo T. Downey, state roads commission district engineer, who died April 13.

at 513 Avirett avenue and property in Richmond, Va. Mrs. Margaret M. Schriver was named sole beneficiary and executor of the estate of her husband, Frank L. Schriver, who died March 28. The will, drawn November 13, 1942 and witnessed by Frank E. Stamp and Clay E. Durrett, was admitted to probate yesterday.

The estate includes the home at 212 Schley street, the interest in the Schriver business and half-interest in his father's estate.

Motorist Forfeits Bond

Art Treasures Recovered

WITH THE UNITED STATES FIFTH ARMY IN ITALY, May 2 (P)—A collection of art treasures reported to be valued at $10,000,000, which the Germans looted from museums in Florence, Rome and other cities, was recovered by an Eighty-third division investigator today in a village near Vicenza.

Treasury Department Promotes V-Mail Bond Gift Certificate Use

Nation-wide use of V-mail war bond gift certificates to advise overseas servicemen and women that a bond has been purchased and is being held for them is being promoted by the Treasury department according to an announcement made at the post office.

The new certificate is similar to the Christmas V-mail bond gift certificate used during the Sixth War Loan drive and is for year-round use. The local War Finance committee will supply them to all issuing agents, including the post office, the announcement stated. The certificates, issued free upon request, are to be issued the first of this month. They are intended for overseas use only, the statement said, since V-mail may not be used between points within the continental United States.

Oldtown School To Hold Festival

A May festival will be presented at the Oldtown school today by the pupils of the elementary school. The program will consist of the procession of the Glee club and the court of the May Queen to the music of "Land of Hope and Glory."

Sue Platt will be crowned Queen of the May by George F. Reiter, principal.

Preceding the May pole dance by pupils of the fifth and sixth grades, the Glee club will sing "Morris Dancers." The program will also include a play entitled, "Shoemaker's Holiday," with the children of grades one and two taking part, and the other children from the same grades presenting a patriotic drill.

Other plays presented were "Dreamland Toyshop," by grades one, two and three; "Rumpelstiltskin," by grade four; "Little Black Sambo," by grades three, four and six; the Glee club and members of the elementary school also dramatized a number of songs including, "Glow Worm," "Passed by Your Window," "Little Chocolate Baby," "Memories," and "Office Buzz."

A dance was presented by grade five and grades five and six danced a number of folk dances. The pro-

W. H. Eyler To Wed Miss Eva L. Decker

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Eva Lee Decker, daughter of Mrs. George Decker, 2740 East Baltimore street, Baltimore, to Warren H. Eyler, Ph. M. 1-c, son of Mrs. Elizabeth E. Eyler, Park Heights.

Miss Decker is a graduate of the Baltimore Vocational school, class of 1942, and is employed at the Eastern Aircraft Corporation in Baltimore.

Mate Eyler is a graduate of Allegheny high school, and was attending Potomac State school, Keyser, when he enlisted in the navy, December 1941. Having recently returned from twenty-two months service in the South Pacific, he wears the Asiatic-Pacific ribbon, American Theater of War and Pre-Pearl Harbor as well as awards for the Philippine and New Guinea campaigns.

No date has been set for the wedding.

The program closed with the singing of the "Land of Hope and Glory," by the Glee club.

Mother Objects To Two Marriages In Same Family

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX
Famous Authority on Problems of Love and Marriage

Dear Miss Fairfax:
Since my wife died, leaving me with a little son, I have been making my home with my mother.
Less than a year ago my wife's sister returned to this city from college, and we have fallen in love.
She adores my little son and I know would be a good mother to him.

My mother likes this girl very much but does not believe in marrying twice in the same family.
Do you think I should marry this girl, knowing that the shock might prove fatal to my mother who can't stand much excitement, or should we break it off and lose our chance for happiness.

CYRIL
There is no legal restriction against marrying one's sister-in-law in the United States. If your sister-in-law loves you and you love her, don't you think the objections of your mother are a bit far fetched?
To wreck the happiness of two lives on account of a mother's unreasonable objections seems foolish to me.

Bargain Brings Misery

Dear Miss Fairfax:
My boy friend and I have been going together for a year and I think we saw too much of each other, because we argued all the time. We couldn't even go to the movies or a dance without arguing.
Finally I told my boy friend to stay away for six months and not even try to get in touch with me.
I didn't realize how miserable I would be. That was three months ago, and he has kept his end of the bargain. I'm heart sick over it all, especially since I've heard he has been taking out other girls. He's over draft age now, and I'm afraid
he will go into the service.

I need your advice badly, Miss Fairfax, and any suggestion you can give me as to the best way of making up, please send it along.
We were practically engaged before this happened. I'm 18 years of age.
MELISSA.

You probably realize now what a mistake it is to indulge yourself in tantrums when it concerns someone whom you really love. Why not write the young man a jolly little note, saying that you've had enough of the moratorium and would like to see him again?

That Nurse Shortage

Dear Miss Fairfax:
With thousands of other mothers who have sick and wounded sons overseas, and also in hospitals in the U.S.A., I'm distressed and horrified at the ineptitude of dealing with the present nurse shortage.
In our city I'm well acquainted with two sisters, excellent nurses who've put their affairs in order after being certified for the army, and are

UP FRONT WITH MAULDIN

"Gee, I didn't realize how rough you boys lived on th' ground."

still waiting, after two months, to be assigned to duty. Why cannot the situation be cleared up, and qualified nurses who have signified their willingness to enlist, be sent to hospitals where they are so crucially needed?

SOLDIER'S MOTHER.
Miss Catherine J. Densford, president of the American Nurses' Association, has agreed that there is sufficient nurse power in the country to meet needs, if wisely allocated.

But she also went on record as saying that through a federally-supported campaign, recruiting could be stimulated and existing confusion eliminated. My suggestion is to write to your senators and congressmen, concerning the confusion and alleged shortage of nurse power.

Steinla Company Charged With Ceiling Violation

An injunction against the Steinla
Motor and Transportation Company 218 South Mechanic street, was issued Tuesday by Federal Judge W. Calvin Chestnut, Baltimore, for violation of O.P.A. regional regulations on the sale of motor vehicles.
The company is accused specifically of selling a truck for $882.50 in June, 1944. The ceiling price on the truck was $541.45.

The injunction is one of three issued against Maryland dealers for O.P.A. violations.

It is estimated that at least one-third of those who now die of cancer could be saved if they could be diagnosed and treated during the early stages of the disease.

Allegany-Garrett Sportsmen Discuss Need for Hatchery

Miller Says Streams Are Insufficiently Stocked for Trout Fishing

By RUDOLPH NICKEL

FROSTBURG, May 2 — The establishment of a trout hatchery in Allegany or Garrett county was suggested last evening at a largely attended meeting of the Allegany-Garrett County Sportsmen's Association as a solution to the need for stocking the trout streams of the two counties. The sportsmen of this section who are now forced to purchase West Virginia and Pennsylvania licenses and fish in the streams of those states.

Former Mayor Fred Crowe suggested Bottle Run, near Cumberland, as a site for the proposed hatchery. He was supported by Ralph Miller, superintendent of the county creek rearing ponds in Garrett county, who stated the supply of young trout sent to him by the state is much less than he receives from the federal government. Miller stated that with a hatchery, trout could be stocked in the streams of the two counties properly.

Jonathan Sleeman, a member of the state legislature, also favored a hatchery in this section. All speakers agreed that the hatchery, when constructed, should be placed in charge of Fulcher P. Smith, member of the state game commission from this section.

A. C. Stewart, discussing an editorial appearing in Tuesday's Cumberland News under the caption "Better Distribution of Trout Is Needed," complimented the paper for its support of the sportsmen of this section. He also pointed out that Miller and Regional Game Warden Joseph Minke, have the confidence of all sportsmen in this section, but stated they are not receiving the fullest co-operation of some state game commissioner employees, including Frank L. Bentz, administrative assistant, and Albert Powell, state fish culturist.

Former Mayor Crowe, who presided, stated that on the opening day of the trout season in West Virginia, the streams of that state were crowded with Maryland fishermen. The reason, he said, is that the streams of Western Maryland are not stocked as the streams of Allegany and Garrett counties.

The association passed a resolution urging Governor O'Connor to use his influence in having a trout hatchery placed in Allegany or Garrett county.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Black Market Versus Brighter Meals

I guess our town doesn't like rationing any better than other folks. But when a fellow went from door to door the other day, peddling butter, cheese, and bacon without points, he didn't find a single taker.

Ed Carey's missus, Sarah, summed it up. "I'd just be ashamed to have that butter on my table," Sarah says. "I'd a heap rather have my family and guests put up with what I can serve honestly, than give 'em a treat from the Black Market."

These days, most people are agreed that a simple menu of unrationed foods and substitutes is a badge of honor ... no apologies required!

And from where I sit, housewives can brighten limited meals with cheerful table decorations, sparkling cider or tangy ice-cold beer, or side dishes of home-made preserves and fruits and nuts. Those little touches can be mighty helpful to the appetite.

1945 Major Loop Baseball Season Produces Upsets

White Sox Surprise, Browns Not Living Up to Advance Notices

By JOE REICHLER
NEW YORK, May 2 (AP)—This 1945 major league baseball campaign promises plenty of surprises.

Already the infant season has produced numerous upsets. The Chicago White Sox, generally tabbed to wind up in seventh or eighth place, won their first five games, and lead the American League in batting and in total hits. The champion St. Louis Browns, selected by experts as most likely to repeat in the junior circuit, lost five straight, a longer losing streak than at any time in 1944.

Dixie Walker, last year's National League batting king, hit a meager 194 in the two-week stretch ending

Monday; Bill Nicholson, home run ruler of the senior circuit for the last two years, hit only one round tripper in eleven games; Mel Ott, supposedly near the end of his career, leads his loop in batting and has belted three homers with eleven RBIs.

The New York Yankees, who topped the American League in fielding last year, are last in that department with twenty-four errors in eleven games. Russ Derby, who wasn't even listed among the regular Yankee outfield trio, is leading the league in runs batted in and home runs. The same holds true for Butch Nieman, of the Braves, who owns four home runs and fourteen runs batted in.

Paul Derringer won only seven games and lost thirteen for the Chicago Cubs last year and was considered through at .38, but he has captured his first three games. Bucky Walters, biggest winner in the older league last year, has yet to win one despite four outings. Hal Newhouse, biggest winner in baseball last year with twenty-nine triumphs for Detroit, owns only one victory against two defeats.

Frank McCormick, of Cincinnati, who has pilfered only seventeen bases in his eight years in the majors, leads his league in thefts with four stolen bases, three in one game. George Starnes, whose fifty-five stolen bases was tops in the majors last year, was caught in his first three attempts to steal this year.

Yankees Defeat Athletics To Tie Chisox for Lead

NEW YORK, May 2 (AP)—Rookie Al Gettel earned his first major league victory today as the New York Yankees downed Philadelphia, 5-4, to go into a first place tie with the Chicago White Sox.

Johnny Lindell drove home half the Yankees runs on a first inning single scoring Hershel Martin and another in the fourth sending in Gettel and George Starnes—with what proved to be the decisive tally.

New York clubbed Russ Christopher for his first loss after three straight wins, pushing across three in the first on successive singles by Starnes, Martin, Russ Derry and Lindell. Martin's one-baser into right scored Oscar Grimes from third in the next frame and Lindell added the other pair in the fourth after an error by Irv Hall and singles by Starnes and Martin had loaded the sacks. GAMES TOMORROW
LaSalle at Hyndman

LaSalle high's defending champions were tagged with their second straight Bi-State Interscholastic baseball Conference defeat yesterday afternoon when the Explorers were shut out 5-0 by Coach Lloyd Hyndman's high tossers at Hyndman, Pa.

The victory moved Hyndman into a tie with Beall, of Froburg, for first place. The game was originally scheduled for Tuesday but was postponed on account of cold and evening weather.

LaSalle's first baseman, Jim Evans, was Hyndman's star pitcher yesterday. He started as a pitcher yesterday and allowed LaSalle only three hits. Evans pitched a perfect game, striking out six batters and allowing only one run in the eighth.

No one was out when Steiner pitched for his two-bagger but next two men up struck out. The other fielded to shortstop. Hyndman was the only LaSalle player to reach third. He walked, stole and advanced to third on a fly ball.

Hyndman sewed up the game in the first inning when George Cook, left fielder, hit a double. Cook's double was the only LaSalle hit in the game. The Pennsylvanians counted two runs in the second on a single by Edmund Mangus, a passed ball error by Esposito and Donal and Cook's single, and manufactured their other tally in the third when Evans singled and Cook hit a double.

In the fourth inning, Esposito first and none out, Tommy Matz smacked a liner to shortstop. Johnny Waltman came in, took the ball off his shoes and fired it to first in time to get Esposito.

Bucs and Cards Split Twin-Bill

PITTSBURGH, May 2 (AP)—After dropping the first game of a doubleheader, 4-2, the Pittsburgh Pirates broke out in the other with a smashing seven-run sixth inning to defeat the St. Louis Cardinals 11-1.

In the first game, Southpaw Harry Beechen held the Bucs to seven hits while the Cardinals' Rip Sewell for twelve in eight innings. Augie Bergamo doubled in the sixth to drive in a run and break a 1-1 deadlock.

In the nightcap, the Bucs jumped on Rip Sewell in the sixth to score seven runs on five hits. The Pirates' thirteenth hit off four Card hurlers while Max Butcher, winning his second game, allowed only seven.

Jack Barrett, the National League's triple king last year, clipped his first three-bagger in the first game and doubled twice in the second. The scores:

VFW Won't Have Team In Rocking Chair Loop

Henry Hart Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will not be represented in the Rocking Chair Softball League, Donald Roby, post director of athletics announced last night.

Roby said that the VFW had decided not to try to organize a team because of lack of interest. A meeting scheduled tonight to discuss softball plans has been cancelled.

The VFW was voted into the league along with the P. O. Eagles at a meeting Monday night. The post's action leaves the loop with seven clubs.

Owners of Derby

Hopefuls Looking

Ahead to V-E Day

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 2 (AP)—Because of the war and the government ban on horse racing, the Kentucky derby will not be run here next Saturday as originally scheduled but there is plenty of activity at Churchill Downs.

There are hundreds of horses at the track and among them are most of the three-year-olds expected to race for the $75,000 added purse, the gold trophy and the wreath of roses when the seventy-first running of the thoroughbred classic is held.

Owners and trainers, looking ahead to the end of the war in Europe and the lifting of the racing ban shortly thereafter, have been putting their derby hopefuls through the paces. Those who know what the training of a derby horse entails say that nearly all of the candidates could be ready for the mile and a quarter contest one month from today.

Most of the more promising three-year-olds have been worked out at six furlongs and many of them have been doing a mile in slow time. The training schedules will be stepped up when and if a definite date for the derby is announced.

Nominations for the big race closed April 25 but Churchill Downs officials have not announced how many horses were named. Such an announcement is not expected until after the ban on racing is lifted. When that will be nobody here claims to know.

Among the derby eligibles now in training at the Downs are Free for all, Pot O'Luck, Fighting Don, Best Effort, Air Sailor, Darien, Byme, abond, Art Roll, Battle Fire, Fighting Step, Bob Mann, K. Doe Doe, Unconditional and others.

Pen-Mar League Schedule Calls For 60 Contests

Split-Season Campaign Opens Sunday—Title Playoff Assured

A sixty-game schedule, with opening contests next Sunday afternoon, will be the first straight pitching triumph for the Detroit Tigers today giving the Chicago White Sox just four hits as Detroit won 2 to 1.

Chicago's defeat, coupled with the New York Yankees' victory over Philadelphia, put the White Sox and Yankees into a first place tie in the American League.

Benton, who has given only ten hits in recording his three wins, downed Chicago's Orval Grove in a first class pitchers' duel. Grove gave just five hits and blanked the Tigers without a safety from the second to the ninth inning.

Detroit got both its runs in the first on successive singles by Eddie Mayo, Roy Cullenbine and Rudy York. Grove scored the Chicago run in the third after singling to left and moving all the way to third when the ball went through Cullenbine. He crossed the plate on Wally Moses' bounce that Benton knocked down back of the mound. The box:

Freezing Weather Ruins Fruit Crop Near Cumberland

Allegany County Escapes with Slight Damage; Hancock Loss Severe

Freezing weather and heavy frost yesterday morning caused an estimated seventy-five to ninety per cent loss to the fruit crop in nearby Washington county and Morgan county, W. Va., orchardists reported last night.

Only a slight loss was reported in Allegany county, however, but Stanley Fulton, president of the Hancock Orchardists Association, said that section was hit so hard that two members of the association have cancelled contracts for the use of prisoner of war labor available at the Green Ridge prison camp for orchard work.

Fulton, who said "we have practically lost the apple crop in the Hancock section, emphasized that his estimate of a ninety per cent loss was based on a "first day general picture." He said any adjustments in the situation, either better or worse, would be known within a few days.

Big Loss near Paw Paw
Henry W. Miller, Jr., Paw Paw, W. Va., vice president and general manager of the Consolidated Orchard Company, said seventy-five to eighty per cent of the crop in Woodrow valley, near Paw Paw, was "frozen out." He added that orchards on Martin's and Iron mountains in Maryland "got through all right."

Damage from the freeze was "widespread," according to Miller, who said the loss in the vicinity of Martinsburg, W. Va., was "bad." He added that he "heard" the freeze also extended up through the fruit growing sections of Franklin and Adams counties, Pa.

Although the loss in the Paw Paw section was higher, he said the Consolidated Orchard holdings probably will return a fifty per cent crop since trees on high mountain tops "got along all right."

Asked if cancellation of contracts for the cause of war prisoner labor would have any effect on the prisoner of war camp located at Green Ridge, Fulton replied that he hopes the state forestry department, which is using prisoners on a pulpwood project, will be able to take up the slack.

Farm Work Possible
Capt. Tom Simon, commanding officer of the prisoner camp, said, however, that the cancellations will not "have any effect on the operation of the camp."

Simon pointed out that the prisoners still are being used in the pulpwood operation, and disclosed that under tentative plans the prisoners may be put to other uses, such as working on farms in this section.

Pulton, who operates an 800-acre orchard of apple and fruit trees, was re-elected president of the fruit-growers association Tuesday night, and he said yesterday that as a result of the freeze and other "frost prospects are poorer than for many years." He estimated that of a normal yearly yield of 125,000 bushels of apples, he will get only 10,000 bushels this year.

Peach Loss High
A "few spots," he said, "located" will come through with part of the apple crop, Pulton said, but he added that there is "no more than ten per cent of the crop left in the area."

Mother Gets Note From Captive Son

A letter from a fellow prisoner held in the same prison camp, which her son provided Mrs. Bertha M. Burns, 119 Hanover street, with the first direct word from her son, Sgt. Virgil P. "Red" Burns, since before his capture when Corregidor fell in May, 1942.

The letter, written by Tech. Sgt. James Francis, now patient at Annapolis, General hospital, McKinney, Tex., after being liberated from a prison camp in the Philippines, informed Mrs. Burns that her son was shipped to Japan December 13, 1944.

Sgt. Francis enclosed a letter which Mrs. Burns had given him for delivery in the event he was liberated. In the letter, which was written in pencil on a piece of ruled paper, Sgt. Burns told his mother that he was being moved to Japan because he was in good physical condition and the Japanese feared an American invasion of the Philippines at an early date.

Sgt. Francis told Mrs. Burns that he will try to come to Cumberland to tell her about her son after he is discharged from the hospital. Both men were imprisoned in camps at Cabanatuan and at Bilid prison in Manila.

Sgt. Burns was an athlete at LaSalle high school, where he starred in football, basketball and baseball. His father, Patrick J. Burns, died about two weeks ago.

His brother, Sgt. Eugene Burns, a former athlete star at Allegany high school, is attached to an army intelligence outfit in the Philippines.

Letter Tells of Death Of Pfc. Charles Jones

A letter from Chaplain William S. Boice of the Twenty-second Infantry regiment, described the death of Pfc. Charles T. Jones, son of Mrs. Violet K. Jones, Christie road, to his sister, Mrs. Geneva Jones Davis, RFD 3, Christie road.

The chaplain stated that Jones, a machine gunner in a weapons platoon, February 10, when a crossfire of machine guns were inflicting many casualties on both sides, disregarded his safety and advanced with his gun to a place where he could knock out an enemy position.

As he was turning his gun toward another enemy position an artillery shell landed on him, killing him instantly. He was buried at Cemetery No. 1, P.O. Belgium.

Holder of the Silver Star, Pfc. Jones was wounded previously in France and in Germany.

CLOTHING FOR NEEDY—Freight warehousemen of the Western Maryland Railway Company top off a full working day by loading sorted and boxed clothing, collected in the recent United Clothing Drive, into a car at the rear of the Footer building where the donations were received. Photographed as they unloaded a truck which carried the boxes from the building to the siding, are (left to right): Henry Valentine, John Long, E. A. Rose, Bernard Beakley, railroad detective, and Jesse Welsh, expressman. Gilbert Wolford, R. H. Grabenstein, R. L. Dyche and A. F. Henkel loaded the truck from the building. When the car left for New York City yesterday it contained 28,800 pounds of clothing. It will be re-bailed and sent overseas. John Carnochan is chairman of the shipping committee.

Although the loss in the Paw Paw section was higher, he said the Consolidated Orchard holdings probably will return a fifty per cent crop since trees on high mountain tops "got along all right."

Asked if cancellation of contracts for the cause of war prisoner labor would have any effect on the prisoner of war camp located at Green Ridge, Fulton replied that he hopes the state forestry department, which is using prisoners on a pulpwood project, will be able to take up the slack.

Simon pointed out that the prisoners still are being used in the pulpwood operation, and disclosed that under tentative plans the prisoners may be put to other uses, such as working on farms in this section.

Job Insurance Expands: Law Now Covers Establishments Employing One or More Persons

Waiting Period Eliminated; Benefits Are Extended to 26 Weeks

Workers employed by employers of one or more persons are now covered by the Maryland Unemployment Compensation Law, the waiting period for unemployed persons has been eliminated and the duration of benefits has been extended from twenty-three to twenty-six weeks, according to information furnished by the Cumberland office of the Maryland Unemployment Compensation Board.

Prior to passage of the amended law by the 1945 session of the state legislature, employers with four or more employees were covered and those unemployed were required to observe a waiting period of one week. The duration of benefits was twenty-three weeks and the maximum weekly benefit amount was $20. Under the new setup the maximum benefit payable weekly is retained but the duration period is increased to twenty-six weeks or half a year.

Become Eligible in 1946
While the new groups of employees given coverage by the law are not eligible to receive benefits until April 1, 1946, the employer is required to start paying into the fund as of January 1, 1945. The law is made retroactive to that date.

Workers in commerce and industry are known as insured workers under Maryland law and the wages they earn are called insured wages. Workers in agriculture, domestic service, government employment, however, are not insured workers and are not covered by this law.

It is conservatively estimated that fifty per cent of persons employed today do not understand just how unemployment compensation or job insurance is computed. Many are under the impression that money deducted from their pay envelopes goes toward this fund but the workers are required to pay a single penny toward the benefits they receive when they are thrown out of employment. This is a direct tax on business and the employer pays through the nose to the extent of three per cent. Certain employers' taxes are reduced due to a lower rating, which is the result of few of their employees claiming benefits. The merit rating will become operative if the Maryland unemployment compensation fund drops below fifty million dollars. The state fund now is approximately 116 million dollars.

New Law Protects States
Under a new law recently passed by Congress, in event any state goes bankrupt, the federal unemployment compensation fund will be put at the disposal of that state.

Many persons confuse unemployment insurance with old age and survivors' insurance, which is better known as Social Security. Under the former program the employer pays into the fund a certain percentage of each worker's salary. The 2.7 per cent tax goes into the state unemployment fund, the remaining three-tenths of one per cent is handed over to the federal collector of internal revenue each year. The 2.7 per cent tax goes into the state unemployment fund, the remaining three-tenths of one per cent is handed over to the federal collector of internal revenue each year.

Under Social Security, one per cent is deducted from the pay of all employees covered by the law while the employer is required to match this amount. This is what is deducted from the pay check—not unemployment compensation.

Payments Are Liberal
Maryland is believed to be the only state in the union which has eliminated the waiting period for job insurance benefits and the benefits are as liberal as any state in the country.

In extending the coverage to employers of one or more persons, the unemployment compensation law in the state is now identical with that of Social Security.

Provisions of the Maryland Unemployment Compensation law are to the effect that to be eligible for benefits the applicant must be able, willing and available for work; must register at a local employment office and must have earned thirty times the last weekly benefit amount during the last calendar year.

The total benefits an applicant can draw in a benefit year (April 1 to March 31) are equal to one-fourth the insured wages in the last calendar year but never more than $520. The weekly benefit amount depends on the insured wages the applicant earned in the highest calendar quarter of the last calendar year in which the applicant earned the most. Weekly benefit amount range from $7 to $20.

When Earnings Are Reduced
Persons are considered unemployed when they are either out of work or when their earnings, because of reduced hours, fall below the weekly benefit amount. If earnings are reduced because of fewer hours of work, employees may be eligible for partial benefits. This information may be obtained at the local office.

Disqualification may mean postponement of the payment of benefits.

1. If you have left work voluntarily without good cause, or

2. If you have been discharged for misconduct connected with your work, or

3. If you have refused without good cause to accept available, suitable work.

Benefits Postponed
The law provides that the payment of benefits will be postponed for any week during which you are: Receiving unemployment compensation from another state, or receiving allowances under the Servicemen's Readjustment act of 1944, or unemployed because of a labor dispute. The law also prescribes penalties for false statements for the purpose of securing benefits not otherwise due or of increasing the amount of benefits.

Veterans of the Second World War, who have served in the armed forces since September 16, 1940, and whose discharges are other than dishonorable, are entitled to benefits under the Servicemen's Readjustment act of 1944 or the GI Bill of Rights.

Knights of Columbus To Hold Communion Mass Next Sunday
Cumberland Council No. 586, Knights of Columbus, will hold the annual communion mass, Sunday, May 6, at 8:10 a. m. in St. Peter and Paul Catholic church, Fayette street. Stanley R. Pretzler, grand knight of the local council announced yesterday.

Following the mass, members of the council will return to the K. of C. Home, 34 North Mechanic street, where breakfast will be served prior to an address by the Rev. Charles O. Rice, of Pittsburgh. The Rev. Rice is well known as an expert on labor questions in the Pittsburgh area, and is popular throughout the east as a lecturer.

The mass will be offered for the welfare of deceased members of the council, and for the ninety-six members who are serving in the armed forces.

Henry Nev's Rites To Be Conducted Tomorrow Morning

Funeral services for Henry Nev, 68, one of the owners of the Cumberland Macaroni Company, who died early yesterday morning at the home of his brother, David Nev, 821 Gephart drive, will be conducted Friday morning at 10 o'clock in St. Peter and Paul Catholic church.

The Rev. Ireneau Reim, O.F.M. Cap., pastor of the church, will be the celebrant of the solemn high mass. Interment will be in St. Mary's cemetery.

Mr. Nev had been in failing health since last July and underwent an operation in Washington in January. He had been bedfast for the last three weeks.

Was Native of Italy
Born in Bergamo D. Beretto, Italy, in 1877, the son of the late Anthony and Catherine Grassi Nev, he came to the United States in 1901 and settled in Blairsville, Pa., where, for a short time, he was employed in the coal mines. Later he went into partnership in a bakery business with his four brothers at Blairsville.

In 1909, the brothers went into a grocery business and conducted two stores, one at Vintondale, Pa., and the other at Colver, Pa.

Seven years later in 1916, the brothers formed the Cumberland Macaroni Company which they now operate. Mr. Nev moved to Cumberland in 1917.

Shortly before embarking for America at the age of 17, Mr. Nev was assisting his father, a stonemason, with work in Marseilles, France, when the latter took ill and died.

Mr. Nev was a member of St. Peter and Paul Catholic church, of Cumberland and Lodge No. 271, Local Order of Moose, Cumberland. He was also a member of the American Legion No. 245, F. O. Eagles, and of Cumberland Lodge of Owls, Nest No. 90.

Three Brothers Survive
He was twice married, his first wife being the late Mrs. Rose Cavasini Nev, and his second, Mrs. Catherine Lasini Nev, residing in Farnovo Taro, Italy, who survives him.

Other survivors include a daughter by his first marriage, Mrs. Linda Vicini, residing in Farnovo Taro; a son, Robert Nev, who was born in Cumberland, but who now resides at Farnovo Taro; three other brothers, Carlo and Ralph Nev, both of Cumberland, and Louis Nev, Vintondale; two sisters, Mrs. Mary Avallini and Mrs. Polina Pili, both of Vintondale, and two grandchildren.

The body will remain at the George funeral home.

MRS. INA LILLIAN VALENTINE
Mrs. Ina Lillian Valentine, 51, wife of Frank A. Valentine, 240 Bond street, died late yesterday afternoon at Allegany hospital, where she was admitted a week ago.

A native of Oldtown, Mrs. Valentine was a daughter of the late Mrs. Delores Jean Valentine, at home. Also surviving are five sisters and six brothers. Prompt Hearing On Dispute Asked By Rubber Union Immediate appointment of an arbitrator to decide the dispute over the recent discharge of two employees of the Kelly-Springfield Tire Company was requested by Ralph C. Beard, president of Local 26, United States Conciliation Service, Washington.

On Tuesday, members of the local and representatives of the company signed a joint stipulation to have the cases of the two discharged employees, V. C. Beachy and F. O. Shaw, submitted to an impartial arbitrator to be appointed by the conciliation service.

Discharge of the two employees precipitated a three-day stoppage at the plant last week, and the joint stipulation asks the conciliation service to name an arbitrator to determine whether or not Beachy and Shaw, "in view of the circumstances surrounding the case, were discharged unjustly."

Decision Will Be Final
According to the stipulation, "both parties agree to do all possible to expedite the determination of this issue. It is further understood the decision rendered by the arbitrator will be final and binding on both parties," the stipulation reads.

The stipulation was signed for the union by Beard, B. Fay Thompson, Edw. M. Martin, Samuel P. Beck, James E. Campbell and O. M. Young, and for the company by R. M. Hudak, M. J. Mullany, T. A. Mont and G. H. Harrison.

Beard's telegram to E. T. Bell, of the conciliation division, stated that he understood signed papers requesting appointment of an arbitrator would be in Bell's hands this morning. The wire "urgently" requested immediate appointment of an arbitrator in the interest of avoiding a work stoppage.

Meet This Morning
Word on the date of the hearing has not been received yet. Beard said he expected the conciliation union will meet with representatives of the company at 10 o'clock this morning to discuss other matters brought to light during the recent stoppage.

Regis New International representative of UAWA, and Frank R. McLaughlin, United States Conciliation Service, will attend the session, to be held in the conference room at the Kelly plant, Beard said.

Local Company Earned Its Rest, Sgl. Hinze Says
The men of Cumberland's Company G were in the thick of the battle in the front for nine months before being relieved and getting a full rest period, First Sgt. H. Frank Hinze, who recently returned home on furlough from Germany, told members of the Lions club yesterday at their regular luncheon meeting in Central YMCA. Hinze recounted some of the experiences of the local outfit, including the landing in Scotland after the ocean trip from the United States and recalled the months of rehearsal for the invasion of France.

G company landed at one of the toughest points on the Normandy beach, according to Sgt. Hinze, who added that the Cumberland soldiers were pinned down on the beach by German troops for one day and night before being able to move ahead.

Advanced Across France
Once the local company began to move, they advanced right across France, taking part in some tough fighting before being promised a rest.

Three days later the rest order was rescinded, and Company G was moved by train for 650 miles to Belgium. The company traveled on the train for five days and five nights before reaching the destination, Sgt. Hinze stated.

He recalled that Company G was with the Ninth army near Aachen and was in on the capture of Muenchen Gladbach and Jplich. A short time later, Company G was relieved and sent back to the Rhine river for the first full rest period in nine months of fighting.

Sgt. Hinze related that he read about strikes in this country and recalled that the strike situation was brought to his attention forcibly, especially on one occasion.

A corporal from a transportation outfit approached him at the front lines, Hinze said, and told him that the tires on his jeep were in bad shape and might not hold up. A short time before that, Hinze said, he had heard of a strike at the Kelly-Springfield Tire Company plant in Cumberland.

High tribute was paid by Hinze to the Red Cross and personnel of clubmobiles who brought food within a couple of miles of the front lines, making it possible for men in the outfit to get hot coffee and doughnuts. For some of the men, Hinze stated, the coffee was the first hot food they had had in days.

Among the guests at the meeting yesterday were Lt. James C. McGee, Lt. Ray Whitehair, Pvt. Jason J. Yelton and Ensign William Torkington.

DR. FRANK M. WILSON WILL SPEAK TONIGHT ON CANCER CAMPAIGN
Dr. Frank M. Wilson will speak on the subject "The Importance of Cancer" in a radio broadcast over station WTBO at 6:15 p. m. today.

His talk will be in connection with the fund-raising drive of the American Cancer Society, which is now under way in Allegany county and has been marked by a generous response from contributors.

Allegany county's quota is $2,500 and efforts are being made to raise this amount by May 15.

Mrs. Morris Rosenbaum, of The Dingle, is commander of District No. 1 of Maryland, comprising five western counties.

Mrs. Rosenbaum yesterday pointed out that 700 cancer patients each month, on the average, are being admitted to cancer hospitals all over the country, approximately 9,000 a year. These figures are furnished by the American Cancer Society.

Posts of the American Legion, very much concerned over the trend, as a result are giving special attention to cancer control. The great majority of those being admitted are veterans of the First World War.

Cancer control and prevention are also being given attention by the women of the American Legion Auxiliary, who concern themselves with all important civic matters in an effort to spread the information that at least one third of the possible cancer deaths are avoidable, the district commander said.

Will Sing Today
The Fort Hill Academy Choir, under the direction of Miss Dorothy Seebie, will present the program at the luncheon meeting of the Kiwanis Club today at Central YMCA.
